McCollum, Trail Blazers beat Thunder 117-106

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — C.J. McCollum had 27 points and seven assists, and the Portland Trail Blazers beat the Oklahoma City Thunder 117-106 on Tuesday night in the opener of a four-game trip.

Shabazz Napier added 21 points and Jusuf Nurkic had 20 points and eight rebounds for Portland, which moved past Oklahoma City into second in the Northwest Division standings with its seventh win in its last nine games against the Thunder.

Portland has won four of five overall despite playing most of that stretch without star guard Damien Lillard, who sat out for the seventh time in the last nine games with a left calf strain.

Russell Westbrook had 22 points, 12 assists and nine rebounds for Oklahoma City, which has dropped off after playing well for most of December. The Thunder have dropped four of six, with three of those losses coming at home.

Oklahoma City shot 44 percent from the field while Portland made 53.1 percent of its shots. Paul George scored 22 points for the Thunder, and Carmelo Anthony had 19.

The Thunder closed to 83-76 with 1:39 remaining in the third quarter on a basket by Anthony, but Portland answered with a 13-1 run and led 96-77 after a 3-pointer by Al-Farouq Aminu with 10:25 left.

TIP-INS

Trail Blazers: Coach Terry Stotts said he didn't have an update on Lillard's injury, "other than he's out." Napier made his sixth start of the season in Lillard's place. ... The Blazers are 12-8 on the road this season. ... Portland has scored more than 110 points in five straight games for its longest such stretch this season.

Thunder: Standout defender Andre Roberson missed his fifth straight game with left patellar tendonitis. Coach Billy Donovan said Roberson practiced a bit on Monday and Tuesday but would also miss Wednesday's game at Minnesota. Terrance Ferguson started in Roberson's place for the fourth straight game and went scoreless. ... Official Justin Van Dwyne called George for a technical foul early in the second quarter for colorfully protesting a no-call after George drew contact on a layup attempt that missed. George responded by scoring 15 points in the final 9:37 of the half. ... George hit 5 of 9 3-point attempts and set a Thunder record with at least three 3-pointers in eight straight games.

Marquette takes down No. 13 Seton Hall 84-64

MILWAUKEE (AP) — For all the attention Marquette receives for its 3-point shooting, coach Steve Wojciechowski would rather have his team attack the rim.

Andrew Rowsey scored 31 points and set the tone early by driving the lane, and the Golden Eagles used a 16-0 run in the second half to pull away from No. 13 Seton Hall 84-64 on Tuesday night.

Sam Hauser added 14 points for the Golden Eagles (12-5, 3-2 Big East). He hit 4 of 9 from 3-point range, including a 3 with 5:25 left for a 73-55 lead.

Energized Marquette outhustled Seton Hall (14-3, 3-1) and held its own in the paint against the Pirates' dominant center, Angel Delgado (12 points, 10 rebounds). The Golden Eagles set a quick tempo to beat the Pirates on both ends of the floor.

"This may be hard for your guystobelieve," Wojciechowski said after the game, "but we want to be a driving team. ... A lot of time because people have to respect our shooting, you can find space. But we talk about driving more than we talk about shooting 3s."

Seton Hall stumbled after reaching its highest ranking in the AP Top 25 poll since Jan. 2, 2001. Coach Kevin Willard's team may have expended too much energy in rallying from 11 down with less than 10 minutes left to beat Butler on the road Saturday.

"We didn't have the same pop we've been playing with for the last couple games," Willard said. "We didn't have the same quickness and the same pop."

Marquette led by eight at halftime, before Seton Hall opened with a 7-0 run to briefly get back in the game. Michael Nzei's jumper with 16:45 left got the Pirates back within 42-41. Then the Golden Eagles took off on their 16-0 run, with nine points coming at the foul line. Rowsey scored nine points overall during the spurt.

After shooting 48 percent in the first half, the Pirates were held to 39 percent (11 of 28) after halftime.

"It was our best defensive performance of the year," Wojciechowski said.

Ismael Sanogo led Seton Hall with 14 points.

BIG PICTURE

Seton Hall: The Pirates failed to move to 4-0 in conference play for the first time since 1992-93. A team that typically outrebounded opponents by six lost the matchup on the boards 38-33. With defenders spread out to cover Marquette's shooters, the Golden Eagles hustled for rebounds and second-chance points.

"I thought we defended well for the first part of possessions well ... but then we let guys get free runs and big offensive rebounds," Willard said. "Those are killers."

Marquette: Markus Howard (23.5 points), Rowsey's partner in the high-scoring backcourt, had what's considered an off-night for him with 12 points on 5-of-11 shooting. But freshman Greg Elliott provided a spark off the bench with nine points, while center Matt Heldt was an active presence on both ends in the paint. A three-point play for Heldt with 7:46 left put Marquette up by 12. The 6-foot-10 Heldt has come a long way since arriving on campus as a freshman project two years ago. ... The Golden Eagles, one of the league's best 3-point shooting teams (41 percent), led by as much as 13 in the first half after going 5 of 15 from behind the arc.

KHADEEN DOWN

Seton Hall 6-4 guard Kha-deen Carrington was held to six points on 2-of-8 shooting after coming into the night having averaged 22.4 points over his previous five games. Elliott, with a long, 6-3 frame, drew the assignment of guarding Carrington much of the night.

"My job was to keep him out of the paint and use my length when (shot) a 3," Elliott said.

STAT LINES

Marquette outscored Seton Hall 18-4 in points off turnovers. The Golden Eagles had six turnovers on the night and just one in the second half. ... Delgado, a senior, picked up his the 63rd double-double of his career and 12th over the season.

South Alabama romps past Trinity Baptist 99-34

MOBILE, Ala. (AP) — Rodrick Sikes and Jordan Andrews had 16 points apiece as South Alabama thumped National Christian College Athletic Association's Trinity Baptist 99-34 on Tuesday night.

Nick Davis added 14 points and Kevin Morris chipped in 12 for South Alabama (9-8), which took a break from Sun Belt Conference action after dropping two straight games. Trhae Mitchell had eight points with 10 rebounds and Morris grabbed nine boards as the Jaguars won the rebound battle 45-27. South Alabama shot 58 percent (40-69) from the floor while limiting the Eagles to 12-of-50 shooting (24 percent).

Trinity Baptist was never really in the game as the Jaguars sprinted to an 18-0 lead, winning the first half 59-14. They led 77-22 at the 11:31 mark of the second period.

USA will return to conference play on Saturday when the Jaguars host Troy.

Chandler Rivers led Trinity Baptist with 10 points.

No. 2 West Virginia escapes with 57-54 win over Baylor

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (AP) — Jevon Carter sank the go-ahead 3-pointer with 57.5 seconds left and No. 2 West Virginia escaped with a 57-54 victory over Baylor on Tuesday night.

West Virginia (15-1, 4-0 Big 12) struggled to make shots the entire game but extended the nation's longest winning streak to 15, the Mountaineers' best since winning 22 straight in 1988-89.

Lamont West and Daxter Miles Jr. led West Virginia with 12 points apiece.

Baylor's Manu Lecomte scored 13 points and Jo Lual-Acuil Jr. had 11 points and 10 rebounds for his eighth double-double of the season.

West Virginia, which had little inside success on offense against the taller Bears (11-5, 1-3), shot 31.1 percent (19 of 61) from the floor and was held to its lowest point total of the season.

But the Mountaineers never trailed in the second half of a close game with few scoring runs. Baylor made one field goal over the final eight minutes.

NO. 3 VIRGINIA 68, SYRACUSE 61

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) — Kyle Guy scored 22 points, De'Andre Hunter added 15 and Virginia beat Syracuse.

Guy made five 3-pointers for Virginia (15-1, 4-0 Atlantic Coast Conference). The Cavaliers attempted a season-high 27 3s and made nine. Devon Hall added 13 points, eight assists and seven rebounds for Virginia.

Frank Howard scored 18 points to lead the Orange (12-5, 1-3). Oshae Brissett added 16 points and Paschal Chukwu scored nine points and grabbed 16 rebounds, but the Orange shot under 40 percent against the nation's top scoring defense and managed just three assists on 23 baskets.

NO. 5 PURDUE 70, MICHIGAN 69

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — Isaac Haas made a tie-breaking free throw with four seconds remaining and Purdue remained unbeaten in the Big Ten by edging Michigan.

The Boilermakers (16-2, 5-0 Big Ten) have won 12 in a row, while the Wolverines (14-4, 3-2) had their seven-game winning streak snapped. Purdue is 5-0 in conference play for the first time since 1989-90.

In the final seconds, Michigan rushed the ball up the court and Charles Matthews took a desperation shot just after crossing midcourt that hit the rim but missed.

NO. 9 OKLAHOMA 75, NO. 8 TEXAS TECH 65

NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Trae Young scored 22 of his 27 points in the second half to help Oklahoma top Texas Tech.

Young, a freshman point guard who leads the nation in scoring and assists, shot just 1 of 12 in the first half. He went 6 for 11 in the second to help the Sooners bounce back from a loss to No. 2 West Virginia on Saturday.

Young also had nine assists and four steals for Oklahoma (13-2, 3-1 Big 12), which won its 11th straight at home. Christian James had 15 points and Khadeem Lattin added 11 points, eight rebounds and seven blocks.

Oklahoma shot 56 percent in the second half. Texas Tech entered the night ranked fourth in the nation in scoring defense,

Georgetown's Ewing tops St. John's Mullin 1 more time at MSG

NEW YORK (AP) — Patrick Ewing mostly kept his hands in his suit pockets as he paced the Madison Square Garden sideline. The 7-footer had already served his tenure banging-and-bumping at the Garden for 15 years and over 35,000 minutes logged as a New York Knick, so he could be excused for playing it cool as coach.

"My body still aches from the years I played here," Ewing said, laughing.

If the body suffered, the nostalgia at least felt sweet at the Garden for the returning Knicks great and Georgetown coach, and more than a little familiar. Ewing was back at his professional home and got the better of Chris Mullin and St. John's one more time in a throwback to their Big East days of the 1980s.

"This is what dreams are made of," Ewing said.

Jessie Govan hit a 3-pointer from the top of the arc to put the Hoyas ahead with 25 seconds left and they held on to beat the Red Storm 69-66 on Tuesday night at MSG.

Ewing walked off the court pumping his fist to the hearty calls of "Patrick! Patrick!" and high-fived a few fans just a few sections over from where his retired No. 33 hangs in the rafters. Ewing's return to New York even included his usual postgame ritual.

"I'm going to go ice my elbow right now," Ewing said.

He also wiped his sweaty head with a towel like his mentor, former Georgetown coach John Thompson.

Ewing and Mullin squared off as coaches of their alma maters for the first time, sparking memories of their glory days when Georgetown went 3-1 vs. the Red Storm in 1984-85 and the teams were ranked in the top three for all four meetings.

"Someone asked me today, what's the chance you thought this would happen," Mullin said. "I said, '100 percent never in my wildest dreams did I think I'd be here in 2018 coaching St. John's against Patrick Ewing coaching Georgetown.'"

Ewing was cheered from the moment he walked out of the tunnel and gave a fist-bump and hug to an arena security guard. He walked toward the St. John's bench and pulled in Mullin for a hearty embrace. They posed for pictures and pointed and shouted toward some familiar faces in the stands. Ewing heard all cheers from the thousands at MSG, maybe even from the Knicks diehards who plunked down $160 bucks for a No. 33 jersey at the team store on the concourse.

Ewing's image is plastered inside and out at the Garden where he forged a Hall of Fame career. The most popular photo in the joint saw his arms outstretched and his back toward the camera from the May 22, 1994 Game 7 win over the Chicago Bulls in the conference semis. His game-worn jersey and sneakers are encased in glass on the concourse and top tickets on Stubhub ran about $180 a pop just before tip.

Mullin, the flat-topped Golden State Warriors great, kept his share of fans even as the Red Storm continue to slog through another depressing season. One fan held a sign that read, "Coach M, WOODEN it be nice to TOP Patrick, again. GO STORM!!" Mullin was the 1985 John Wooden Award winner given to the most outstanding player in college basketball.

While Ewing stalked the sideline, Mullin gestured, waved hand signals and pulled a piece of paper out his pocket for an occasional glance at the playbook.

But Ewing was quick to bellow, "Rebound! Go!" the kind of commands that had to even please former St. John's coach Lou Carnesecca in the stands.

Ewing wore a dark winter cap and Mullin had his head covered by a hoodie as they shook hands in a photo that had more than 1,600 likes by tipoff on Georgetown's Twitter account.

"We've known each so long and been through so many things that it was just another thing we're doing," Mullin said.

Ewing and Mullin would have been one-and-done players in this era but instead their identities are forever linked with their college heyday. Mullin led the Red Storm to the 1985 Final Four, a No. 1 ranking and finished his career as the program's career leading scorer. Ewing personified the "Hoya Paranoia" under Thompson and took the program to the 1984 national championship. Ewing and the Hoyas beat Mullin and St. John's in one of the 1985 Final Four games — where Georgetown would then get upset by Villanova in the title game.

This one was far from a Big East classic and served as a stark reminder of how just far these programs are from the days when Mullin and Ewing, teammates on two Olympic teams, dominated the game instead of watching one in suits. The Big East teams shot a combined 4 for 23 in the first half from 3-point range and crowd enthusiasm waned until the final minutes after both coaches were introduced.

BIG PICTURE

Georgetown: Govan had 18 points and 13 rebounds for the Hoyas (12-4, 2-3 Big East). Marcus Derrickson scored 17 points. "We definitely wanted to come out and get this one for him," Govan said.

St. John's: Shamorie Ponds scored 17 points for St. John's (10-7, 0-5) and Justin Simon had 16.

DRESS UP

Ewing laughed when noticed Mullin wore a tie for the game. "I wore it just for you," Mullin told him when they exchanged pregame pleasantries.

Foster scores 23 in No. 25 Creighton's 85-74 win over Butler

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — Creighton's Marcus Foster went from having his worst game of the season to one of his best.

Foster scored 21 of his 23 points in the first half and then turned into a playmaker in the second as the No. 25 Bluejays beat Butler 85-74 on Tuesday night.

The senior guard was coming off a season-low nine points on 3-of-14 shooting at Georgetown on Saturday. He bounced back quite nicely, leading the way during a run that broke open the game midway through the first half and scoring eight of the Bluejays' last 10 points before the break. Butler clamped down on him in the second half, when he had six of his season-high eight assists, including a couple big ones after Butler pulled within six points late.

"There weren't many games a year ago that Marcus Foster had eight assists and two turnovers," Creighton coach Greg McDermott said. "I think it's just another sign of his progress and how he continues to grow as a player in every facet of the game."

Foster, who transferred from Kansas State after the 2014-15 season, has always taken a prodigious number of shots, but he's shown much more discipline this season. He put up only five shots in the second half after taking 14 in the first. He finished 10 for 19.

"Back at K-State, if I had a bad game like I did against Georgetown, I would have come and put up a whole bunch of shots and had a similar night to the one I had at Georgetown," Foster said. "I stayed patient."

Martin Krampelj had 14 points and 14 rebounds for his third straight double-double, and the Bluejays (14-3, 4-1 Big East) won for the ninth time in 10 games. The Bulldogs (12-6, 2-3) lost their third straight.

Butler's star, Kelan Martin, struggled with Khyri Thomas guarding him. After averaging 25.8 points in the Bulldogs' first four Big East games, Martin was held to two in the first half and 10 for the game. He did have 11 rebounds.

Creighton led by 18 early in the second half and was still up 69-55 with 8:39 left. Butler then went on a 13-5 run, with Martin backing down Thomas twice in the post to make it 74-68.

Foster fed Davion Mintz for a reverse layup and Krampelj for a dunk to put the Bluejays up 80-70 with a minute to play, and the Bulldogs missed seven of their last eight shots.

Paul Jorgensen had 18 points, Kamar Baldwin added 15 points and eight rebounds, and Aaron Thompson had 12 points for the Bulldogs.

"You spot them 17 points, it's going to be really tough to come back when you dig a hole like that," Butler coach LaVall Jordan said. "I continue to say I love the fight in our group. You need a couple balls to bounce your way in order to pull one

BIG PICTURE

Butler: The Bulldogs had a 37-32 rebounding advantage, and four players scored in double figures. But they need Martin more involved on offense early.

Creighton: The Bluejays had 23 assists on 33 field goals and continue to show they are tough to beat once they get going in transition.

MONSTER JAM

Thomas, who had 14 points, drew the biggest roar of the night when he took a pass from Ronnie Harrell Jr. in the first half and instinctively took off near the free throw line for a huge throw-down.

"I really was going to do a layup," he said. "I had the wide-open lane and I dunked it."

TOUGH STRETCH ENDS

Butler finished a stretch in which it played four straight ranked opponents. The Bulldogs upset then-No. 1 Villanova before losing three straight.

Murray rallies No. 22 Auburn over Ole Miss 85-70

AUBURN, Ala. (AP) — Auburn coach Bruce Pearl saw his team taking what Mississippi's defenders were giving, and that wasn't good enough. So in the second half, the Eagles tried to take over by simply taking charge.

Desean Murray had 16 points and eight rebounds, and No. 22 Auburn erased a ten-point half-time deficit to beat Mississippi 85-70 on Tuesday night.

Auburn (15-1, 3-0 South-eastern Conference) won its 13th straight game overall and opened 3-0 in conference play for the first time since 2002-03. Auburn had lost 10 straight against Ole Miss.

Playing its first home game as a ranked team since 2000, Auburn came out flat, missing its first four shots and shooting 34 percent from the field in the first half, including 3 of 17 from deep.

Auburn emphasized attacking the basket after half-time, as the Tigers went ten minutes without attempting a 3-point shot to open the second half. Auburn went 29 for 37 at the free-throw line and out-scored Ole Miss 50-25 in the second half.

"We were settling in the first half. And it was my turn, and it fed off each other," Pearl said. "We talked about shot selection, and we talked about, 'Did we shoot the shots we wanted to shoot? Or the shots they wanted us to shoot?' We settled. We didn't talk about not shooting the 3, but we talked about execution and not settling."

While the offensive adjustments had a much more visible impact, Pearl emphasized that changes on the defensive end also played a big part in the momentum shift.

"We made some adjustments in the second half with our matchups. We extended defensively a little bit," Pearl said. "And I don't think there's any question us guarding them wore them down. That had a lot to do with us being able to outplay them so much."

Mustapha Heron added 15 points for Auburn, and Afernee McLemore added 13 points and nine rebounds.

Breein Tyree led the Rebels (9-7, 2-2) with 24 points.

Playing without leading scorer Deandre Burnett, Ole Miss silenced the Auburn crowd early, scoring 14 points off 11 Auburn turnovers and taking a 45-35 halftime lead. The Rebels shot just 26 percent in the second half.

"In the second half we just completely melted down, which allowed them to get out and do what they do and get off in the open floor and make plays," Ole Miss coach Andy Kennedy said.

BIG PICTURE

Mississippi: Tyree replaced Burnett in the starting lineup and led the Rebels on 7-of-18 shooting. Dominik Olejniczak had 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Auburn: The Tigers can stretch their undefeated start with winnable upcoming games against Mississippi State, Alabama, Georgia and Missouri. They aren't slated to face a ranked opponent until they host Kentucky on Feb. 14.

UP NEXT

Mississippi: Hosts Florida on Saturday.

Auburn: Plays at Mississippi State on Saturday.

allowing 59 points per game.

Keenan Evans scored 19 points for Texas Tech (14-2, 3-1).

NO. 12 KANSAS 83, IOWA STATE 78

LAWRENCE, Kan. (AP) — Malik Newman scored a career-high 27 points, Svi Mykhailiuk added 23 and Kansas staved off an upset bid by Iowa State, pulling away in the closing minutes.

Devonte Graham added 11 points for the Jayhawks (13-3, 3-1 Big 12), most of those coming in crunch time, when he shook off a 1-for-11 start from the field to knock down three big jumpers.

Lindell Wigginton had 27 points and Donovan Jackson scored 20 for the Cyclones (9-6, 0-4), whose four straight losses — including back-to-back overtime defeats — have come on the heels of nine straight wins.

Cameron Lard added 15 points and 10 rebounds, though he also committed seven of the Cyclones' 17 turnovers. Nick Weiler-Babb contributed 13 points, 10 boards and eight assists.

MARQUETTE 84, NO. 13 SETON HALL 64

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Andrew Rowsey scored 31 points and Marquette used a 16-0 run in the second half to pull away from Seton Hall.

Sam Hauser added 14 points for the Golden Eagles (12-5, 3-2 Big East). He shot 4 of 9 from 3-point range, including a 3 with 5:25 left for a 73-55 lead.

Energized Marquette outhustled Seton Hall (14-3, 3-1) and held its own in the paint against the Pirates' dominant center, Angel Delgado (12 points, 10 rebounds). The Golden Eagles set a quick tempo to beat the Pirates on both ends of the floor.

EUGENIA LAST

THE LAST WORD IN ASTROLOGY

Wednesday,
January 10,
2018

Happy Birthday: Engage in tactical measures that will lead to a higher standard of living and an improved reputation. Give your all in order to be at your peak performance. Added discipline will be yours to enjoy, so don't waste it on issues or matters that won't make a difference. Focus on what means the most to you. Your numbers are 8, 11, 16, 20, 26, 32, 43.

ARIES (March 21-April 19): Do whatever it takes to keep the peace and to accomplish what you set out to do. Know your boundaries and do your best to improve your relationships with peers and personal partners. Revisit your beliefs and goals. ***

TAURUS (April 20-May 20): Partnerships are highlighted. Whether of a personal or business nature, expand your communication to include the nitty-gritty details about any plan you want to pursue. Romance will improve your personal life. ***

GEMINI (May 21-June 20): You'll have some great ideas to share, but do the legwork and make sure they are feasible before you get others on board. A serious contributor will cause a disruption if you don't deliver what you promised. ***

CANCER (June 21-July 22): Partnerships are favored. Attending meetings or traveling will be a great source of information. Don't be afraid to strike up a conversation if you encounter someone who interests you. A romantic gesture will enhance your day.**

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22): Problems at home will mount if you are careless emotionally or financially. Think before making questionable lifestyle changes. Avoid bad habits and people who are a poor influence. Put your health first and be moderate in all you do. **

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22): Getting together with friends, relatives or business associates will lead to valuable information that can help you make a vocational choice. Personal relationships can be addressed and plans can be made. Love and romance are on the rise. ****

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22): To avoid letting your home be disrupted, rely on what you know, not what you hear. Accept last-minute changes without making a fuss. The less you complain, the easier it will be to move forward. ***

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21): Your emotions will surface and your passion will intensify. Use your persistent powers of persuasion to help you get what you want. Be willing to give and take to make sure everyone comes out a winner. Love is highlighted. ***

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21): Rely on your intelligence, curiosity and desire to get ahead. Common sense doesn't always come into play when you get excited about something, but beware of anyone who makes an offer that sounds too good to be true*

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19): Take hold of whatever situation you face and do what's right. Your determination and ability to get things done will put you in a position capable of bringing about positive changes. Romance is highlighted. ****

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18): Helping others can be invigorating, unlike being taken advantage of. Pick your causes and battles with care. Information pertinent to your decision is likely to be withheld. Take your time and do your own research. *****

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20): When making a deal, consider what you have to offer and what you want in return. Offer sage advice and your contributions will be well-received and boost your reputation. Romance is in the stars. *****

Dear Abby

WIFE WANTS OUT OF HUSBAND'S FLING IN SWINGING LIFESTYLE

DEAR ABBY: My husband, to whom I've been married since July of 2016, has recently caved in to pressure from friends to participate in "swinger" behavior. He wants me to be included, but I really don't want to. The other female has lesbian tendencies that make me uncomfortable. Her boyfriend is juggling two partners at once, alternating nights for each one. My husband has told him he can do whatever he wants in front of us, which I find awkward and embarrassing.

I don't want to be a spoilsport, but I feel he is being unfair to me. How do I put the genie back in the bottle without ruining my marriage and friendships? We've lived together since 2005, and the pressure is getting worse now that we're married. -- NOT TO SWING IN THE USA

DEAR NOT TO SWING: If your vision of marriage is a union between two people only, then the man you married is not someone with whom you should spend a lifetime. Do not allow yourself to be coerced into anything you are not comfortable with, and that includes threesomes. Much as you might wish it, you are not going to change your husband, which is why it may be time for you to revisit this subject with him and the help of a licensed marriage and family therapist.

DEAR ABBY: I dated a longtime friend, "Austin," for about four months. He had a history of drug use, but had been sober for about four years before he stopped attending meetings.

I have two children from my previous marriage. He knew when we started dating that if he relapsed, the relationship was over. He did, so I ended it then and there. Austin begged me for a second chance and for my help. I have known his family for as long as I've known him, which is 20 years. He swore up and down to me that he wouldn't relapse again, but he did and died from an overdose. Austin's family blames me for his death because I didn't answer his calls or messages. How can I explain to them there was nothing I could do? -- FAULT ISN'T MINE

DEAR FAULT: You were under no ethical or moral obligation to answer Austin's texts or messages after his relapses. Save yourself the frustration of trying to point out the truth to his family. Austin's relatives are in pain right now, and in denial as well. They are blaming you rather than their son because the truth -- that Austin was responsible for his own actions and his own death -- may be too hard for them to face.

DEAR ABBY: I am a retired lady who often eats alone in restaurants. When I arrive, the host or hostess usually greets me and asks, "How many?" When I reply, "One," the invariable response is, "Just ONE?" I find the question demeaning and rude.

I have responded with things like "Isn't one enough?" or, "If you prefer groups, I can go elsewhere." I have even mentioned to managers that it would be more appropriate if they trained their hosts not to say "just." Can you offer a better response I can give? -- PARTY OF ONE

DEAR PARTY OF ONE: I think you are handling the situation as well as it can be handled. Sometimes people don't stop to consider the implications of what they are saying. It's impolite for a host to ask, "Just one?" because in some cases the reply could be depressing and cloud the dining experience.

Ellington lifts Heat to 90-89 win at Raptors

TORONTO (AP) — Wayne Ellington made a go-ahead driving layup with less than a second remaining, and the Miami Heat stopped Toronto’s 12-game home winning streak with a 90-89 victory over the Raptors on Tuesday night.

It was the only basket of the second half for Ellington, who finished with 15 points.

Goran Dragic had 24 points and 12 rebounds as Miami extended its season-best winning streak to five. Bam Adebayo had 16 points and a career-high 15 rebounds and Hassan Whiteside collected 13 points and 15 boards for the Heat, who had dropped their previous five visits to Toronto.

The Raptors were without point guard Kyle Lowry after the three-time All-Star bruised his tailbone during Monday’s overtime win at Brooklyn.

DeMar DeRozan scored 25 points as the Raptors lost for the first time in six games and failed to break the franchise record for consecutive home victories.

TRAIL BLAZERS 117, THUNDER 106

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — C.J. McCollum had 27 points and seven assists, and the Trail Blazers beat the Thunder in the opener of a four-game trip.

Shabazz Napier added 21 points and Jusuf Nurkic had 20 points and eight rebounds for Portland, which moved past Oklahoma City into second in the Northwest Division standings with its seventh win in its last nine games against the Thunder.

Portland has won four of five overall despite playing most of that stretch without star guard Damien Lillard, who sat out for the seventh time in the last nine games with a left calf strain.

Russell Westbrook had 22 points, 12 assists and nine rebounds for Oklahoma City, which has dropped four of six.

Pope, Montana lead SDSU’s 85-49 rout of Spartans

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Malik Pope and Max Montana scored 17 points apiece for San Diego State, which used a 26-4 run spanning halftime to rout San Jose State 85-49 Tuesday night.

Devin Watson added 15 and Jalen McDaniels 13 for SDSU (11-4, 3-1 Mountain West), which won its third straight game. Keith Fisher scored 14 and Jaycee Hillsman 10 for San Jose State (3-13, 0-5), which has lost five straight.

The Aztecs were leading 20-19 when McDaniels, a red-shirt freshman, made three straight buckets, including a jumper, a one-handed dunk and a shot off a rebound, to make it 26-21 with 3:53 before halftime.

McDaniels’ final two shots of that burst started a 10-2 run to close the half and give SDSU a 32-23 lead.

San Jose State’s Ashton Chastain made a jump hook in the opening minute of the second half before SDSU reeled off 16 straight points to jump ahead 48-25. Included in that run were a 3-point play by Watson and 3-point shots by Matt Mitchell and Pope.

Montana scored 15 of his 17 points in the second half, including three 3-pointers in the final 3:10.

The highlight of the first half for the Spartans came when Chastain attempted an alley-oop pass and it went in for a 3-pointer for an 11-8 lead.
